Press Release

Sempermed Offers a Latex-Free, Powder-Free Solution

Clearwater, FL, June 11, 2009: Sempermed, one of the world's leading manufacturers of hand protection is pleased to announce improvements to Sempermed® Syntegra CR Powder-Free Surgical Gloves. They still offer a similar fit and feel to latex and are manufactured with polychloroprene, and now they have been reformulated making them easier to double glove.

Syntegra CR still provides excellent tactile sensitivity, while the textured surface and beaded cuff enhance gripping and protection.

Sempermed is a vertically integrated manufacturer that provides focused sales, marketing, and logistical support to those in need of hand protection.
